South Tyneside NHS Foundation Trust Annual Members' Meeting

South Tyneside NHS Foundation Trust's Annual Members' Meeting will take place on Monday, December 7th, in the Education Centre, South Tyneside District Hospital.

From 3pm, there will be an opportunity to enjoy a festive mince pie and tea and coffee, whilst finding out about the Trust's Annual Report and Accounts for 2014/15 and viewing displays focusing on 10 years as a Foundation Trust.

At the formal meeting, beginning at 4pm, Chairman Peter Davidson and the Council of Governors will provide information to the membership on the Trust's performance in 2014/15 and on its future plans. The results of the recent elections to the Council of Governors will also be revealed.

The Trust provides hospital services in South Tyneside and community health services in South Tyneside, Gateshead and Sunderland. All members are invited to attend the meeting and anyone wishing to become a member is also very welcome. Membership is free and is open to residents of all three areas who are over the age of 16. Members elect the Council of Governors and receive regular updates about the work of the Trust.
